

WICHITAN HOPE:

Places in our city where love and compassion bring healing and justice

Join us at St. John's each Wednesday at 12:00 noon, for prayer with our guest speaker's message.

The conversation will continue at our 12:30 lunch in the undercroft ($5 suggested donation).

Invite a co-worker, neighbor or friend to this treasured St. John's tradition for forty-six years. All are welcome!

MARCH 8

THE HONORABLE JEFF LONGWELL, Mayor of the City of Wichita
"Serving God, Serving your Community"

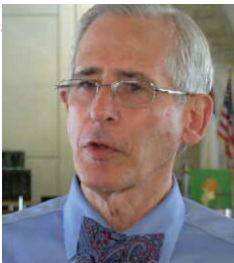

Mayor Longwell's shares how public service ties into his faith and service to God.

MARCH 15

SPENCER LINDSAY, Working Men of Christ Ministry
"Healing Incarcerated Souls"

Spencer, a former inmate, shares the transformative power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ with men inside prison as well as those as they transition back into life in our city.

MARCH 22

PASTOR DAVE FULTON, St. Paul's Lutheran Church
"My Big Dream for Wichita"

Hope College Scholarships for city children have been offered in many communities around our county. Dave will make his case that Wichita's time has come for this revolutionary approach to rebuilding our cities.

MARCH 29

VICKY BOND, Raise My Head Foundation
"The Power of Community"

Vicki's foundation is opening in our city a two-year residential center where women who have been subjected to sex trafficking (formerly referred to as prostitution), abuse or homelessness can restore their lives. Homemade items by the foundation's clients will be for sale in support of their mission.

APRIL 5

CINDY WATSON, Senior Pastor, 1st United Methodist Church
"Real Hope for the Human Soul"

A graduate of North High School and Friends University here in Wichita, Cindy has served congregations large and small across Kansas. This grandmother of thirteen children speaks about that most primal of human needs: hope.
